REPORTS

City Administrator

- The phone message at City Hall will be changed to have the person calling in to call 911 if they are calling about a downed powerline or a gas smell. This will help the dispatchers so that they do not have to answer two sets of phones.
- The final budget for FY24 showed that expenses were $446,000 under budget. Although an amendment was filed, it was not used.
- Will be having the FY24 audit next week.

Director of Public Works

• Passed the pool inspection.

Community Development Director

• The Sports Court is completed except for the fence that will be installed next week.

Council Updates

• None

Mayor Comments

- Would like the Council to consider changing the dates that fireworks can be used. He suggested shortening the amount of days before and after the 4th of July. This will be a line item on next meeting agenda
- Congratulations to both boys and girls teams that are currently playing to move onto state level.

Motion by Bohi, second by to Spargur to adjourn the meeting at 8:41 pm. AYE: Howard, Bohi, Husted, Spargur NAY: None Motion carried.

	Chris Miller, Mayor
